

NAME

BSC (HONS) TELEVISION & BROADCASTING

VIMEO

LINKEDIN

PERSONAL PROFILE

Second year Television and Broadcasting student at the University of Portsmouth seeking placement year. Experience includes producing freelance videos, working for charities such as Waterloo 200 Charity also working part time for the University's Media Production Centre as the Assistant Producer. Experience using Adobe Premiere Pro and AVID to a professional standard.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

March 2017 - Current: ORCA (Charity) - Freelance Producer

Producing a series of videos for ORCA to help with their training programs.

- Camera operator using Canon 7D

March 2017 - Current: Waterloo 200 Charity - Freelance Producer, Lead Camera Op

Producing a 20 minute documentary in a team of three about the medical practices during the Battle of Waterloo being filmed in Belgium in June 2017

- Lead Camera Operator using Canon C300
- Ensuring accommodation, travel and paperwork is completed
- Liaising with client

September 2016 - Current: Media Production Centre, University of Portsmouth - Assistant Producer

- Completing risk assessments, call sheets and permits
- Organising crew and talent
- Camera operations using Canon 5DiIII
- Head of Lighting for a number of shoots

March 2017: Raw Edge Fashion, London - Freelance Producer/Camera Operator

Producer and Camera Operator for a 2 minute film promoting Raw Edge Fashion event as part of London Fashion week Relevant paperwork such as risk assessments, location agreement and call sheets

- Organising crew
- Filming using JVC HM600

January - March 2017: Burgundy (Film) - Freelance Assistant Producer/ Clapper Board

- Risk assessments
- Creating a prop script
- Location scouting
- Clapper board

January 2017 - February 2017: Media Production Centre, University of Portsmouth - Freelance Editor

- Using Premiere Pro to cut together 3 minute interviews with researchers from Portsmouth Business School
- 1 week turnarounds

December 2016 (1 week): VCCP Kin, London - Production Runner

- Filming for O2 Rogue One campaign
- Risk assessment for professional shoots involving George North
- Filming castings using Canon 5DiIII
- Organising expenditure

November 2016: University of Portsmouth - Producer/Camera Op

- Produced a video highlighting the Diversity Now Black, Asian, and Minority Ethnic Project that the School of Art & Design was heavily involved with.
- Recruiting a crew and organising shooting schedule with talent and crew
- Filming talking head interviews using JVC HM600

EDUCATION

2015 – Current: University of Portsmouth - BSc (Hons) Television and Broadcasting (Predicted 2:1)

- Produced a video to celebrate the markets in and around Portsmouth which was displayed on Big Screen Portsmouth reaching an audience of 80,000 people a day High quality skills in a virtual live TV studio being able to produce, direct, film and edit TV programmes for broadcast. Projects include making a 20 minute show highlighting dogfriendly Portsmouth.
- Technically competent in AVID and Premiere Pro. Directed and edited a radio podcast on cleaning up the oceans and a thriller drama podcast on a diver’s experience. Studio Camera operator for an interview with the Vice Chancellor of the University of Portsmouth.
- The ability to generate new ideas, concepts, proposals, solutions and arguments to fit the criteria of various units. Worked as head of Marketing and Promotions for a 20-minute TV show which received a total of 105 live viewers. Head Content Editor for a 20-minute TV show. Using skills in AVID and Premiere Pro also working very closely with the VT Director.

OTHER WORK

EXPERIENCE

June 2013 - September 2013: Hungry Jack, Melbourne

- Front of House

November 2013 - July 2014: Broadwater Fryer, Worthing

- Front of House

July 2014 - September 2014: Cafe Luna, Worthing

- Waiter

September 2014 - August 2015: The Range, Worthing

- Customer Assistant

November 2015 - June 2016: Zanzi, Portsmouth

Bartender

2013 – 2015: Worthing College

- Business Studies Diploma Level 3 – Distinction
- Media Studies Diploma Level 3 – Distinction
- Regularly involved in the College’s paid peers mentoring scheme for struggling students.
- Launched and shaped a project that was exhibited in Worthing Museum.

2008-2012: St. Andrews High School for Boys

- 7 GCSEs grades A*- C, Including maths, English and Double Science
- Nationwide Diana Award of Excellence for my work involved in Anti-Bullying
- Out of 120 I was selected to become a part the “Make Learning Better” team, where I interviewed various applicants applying to become teachers at the school

REFERENCES
AVAILABLE UPON